

Family Audiences

Choosing entertainment for an all-ages event is harder than it seems. Often the best you can do is select something that's appropriate for and enjoyed by the younger audience members and hope that the adults will enjoy it somewhat as well – it's not what they would have picked if the show was just for them, but it wasn't that bad.

HOJA has a unique gift of appealing to all ages simultaneously. We have tailored our presentation very deliberately to appeal to these different age groups in specific ways. Children love our energy, zany choreography, and fun vocal sounds. Teenagers are amazed at our vocal percussion and see us as a cool boy-band doing something very unique. The adults love our harmonies and the humor that goes a bit over the kids' heads. Many of our songs are hits from the 60's to the 80's which have been redone in recent movies so that both the adults and kids recognize and sing along with them. We do a few recent pop songs that the younger generation really respond to, but because they're full of harmonies and done acappella the adults enjoy them too. We do a little bit of barbershop and doo-wop so that even the seniors feel there was something in the show just for them, but these are done in a lighthearted and fun way so that the kids also enjoy them.

If you are looking for entertainment that all of your audience will love (and not just feel that it was fun for the kids), you will be amazed and delighted by HOJA.

"They were fantastic! They sang to the kids and got the crowd involved. They were professional to work with and a blast for the families."

- Jana Blais, Battlefords & District Co-operatives Ltd, North Battleford, SK

"Never have I observed entertainers appeal to so many at the same performance. Right from the toddlers dancing in the aisles to the 80 year old curmudgeons wiping tears of laughter from their eyes never have I witnessed an audience so content and involved."

- Tim Korol, St. Mary's Fundraising Committee, Colonsay, SK

"Their love of music, great talent, their sense of fun and engaging personalities crossed all age boundaries. From the youngest to the oldest, there were smiles and laughter."

- Fern Yausie, City of Saskatoon Light & Power, Saskatoon, SK
